

20 December 1962

Approval of Report

Moscow Domestic Service in Russian 1100 GMT 10 November 1962-1

(Secret) The Supreme Soviet of the USSR, having heard and discussed the report of the chairman of the USSR Council of Ministers, Comrade Khrushchev, entitled "The Contemporary International Situation and Foreign Policy of the Soviet Union" resolved:

To approve the foreign policy of the Soviet Government aimed at a further consolidation of peace and friendship among nations on the basis of Lenin's principles of peaceful coexistence; and

To approve the measures carried out by the Soviet Government in preventing the dangerous crisis concerning revolutionary Cuba and in reducing international tension. The moral-political support of the peace-loving forces over the imperialist forces which pulled the world into the road of thermo-nuclear war opens favorable prospects for the consolidation of international safety and the peaceful alliance of contending peoples by means of negotiations.

The USSR Supreme Soviet expresses the appreciation of all people who will continue to paralyze, social organizations and public figures, and the political offices of the Soviet Government in their efforts to consolidation of socialism in the Caribbean. It urges all countries to do their best to be vigilant and act with determination against the imperialist policies of aggression and for the defense of the Cuban people, peaceful alliance of international anti-imperialist forces, and the preservation of the neutrality of Latin America.